

Event period: July – September 2024

Location: France

MUSIC OPERATOR

The Music Operator's key responsibility will be to operate the audio playback device, including the playback of national anthems for the Victory Ceremonies. They will work closely with the Sport Presentation Venue Producer to develop the daily music program for each day of competition at their assigned sport.

Key responsibilities include:

- Reports to the Sport Presentation Venue Producer
- Operate the audio playback device – including playback of national anthems for the Victory Ceremonies, music tracks for athlete introductions and key sporting moments, and music tracks for pre-show and post-show periods, etc.
- Takes cues from the Sport Presentation Producer
- Work closely with the Sport Presentation Producer to select and program the music tracks and playlists to be used for each competition session at their assigned sport
- Regulate the volume level and sound quality during the games
- Assist the Audio Operator

Qualifications/Attributes:

- Audio Production / Music Production studies is essential
- English speaking proficiency required
- Experience doing live audio for events is essential
- Operation of a music playback device / program essential – example playback device: Soundboard (a music playback program) operated using a laptop
- Knowledge and confidence to select the right tracks to be played, as directed by the Sport Presentation Venue Producer
- Experience of show condition, use of communications and their protocols is advantageous
- Excellent attention to detail
- Proactive and positive 'can-do' approach
- Ability to remain calm under pressure
- Ability to adhere to policies and follow procedures
- Ability to follow clear instructions effectively